ARREST OF THE PROPERTOR OF AN ALLEGED BOGUS CITY DISPATOR POST -Saturday morning Officer Armstrong, o the Mayor's squad, took into custody a young man named Charles S. Warwick alias Hall alias Taylor, the proprieto of an alleged bogus city dispatch post, against whom it is alleged he has failed to carry letters dropped in the boxes for delivery to their proper place of destination, and has or some time past made it a business of opening all letters eccived, and, where money was found enclosed, the same or some time past made it a business of opening all letters eceived, and, where money was found enclosed, the same was appropriated to hie own use and the letters destroyed. It appears that not long since a gentleman residing in the upper part of the city had, on one or two occasions, made use of Warwick's post, but neither time did his letters reach the party to whom they were directed. He accordingly, after some inquiry, was unable to find any headquarters for the above post, and being satisfied that all was not right he laid the facis before the Mayor, who immediately placed the matter in the hands of the above officer. Officer Armstrong soon succeeded in coming across one of the carriers, who was a boy about ten years of age, who stated on his arrest that he was employed by Warwick to collect the letters but not to deliver them—that he collected from twenty to thirty letters a day, and that Warwick had his office in a boarding house in New Bowery. A watch was accordingly kept on the house, and soon the cofficer and the satisfaction of meeting his man, just as he was about to enter his room, when he was taken into custody. A search was then made and a large number opened, and among them two letters that the officers had the day previous placed in one of the boxes, containing life in "queer" money, for the purpose of detecting Warwick. A large number of his postibils were also found in his room of the following description:—

Warwick's Cry Durarch Post.—Postage two cents, in all aris of the city, south of Fifty-fourth street. Letters for the Juited States malls must be prepaid, (according to act of Corea, passed March 3, 1856), or they will not be forwarded the General Post Office. "No money-do valuable letters be accounted for, in any case, unless when given personto the carriers, who will give a receipt for the same."

Lie-Solety notices delivered at roduced rates. Stamps sale by the carriers.

From the affidavits it appears that one of the firm discovered on Baturday last a number of books secreted in the cellar, and snapicion rested upon young Crosby, which on an examination of certain facts, fully satisfied Mess's. K. & K. that the accused intended to steal them. He was therefore discharged. His removal scon lead to new discoveries, and it was found that he had procured, under the pretence that he had been sent by his employer, about fifty gross of pens from Joseph Gillette, twelve dozen leads from Messrs. Cohen, and a large quantity of pencils from Edward Faber, which he sold to a man named Patrick Donnelly. Crosby, when arrested, confessed that he had procured the above goods, and gave up bills of goods obtained in a like way, amounting to nearly $350. He confessed that he also procured letters addressed to Kiggins & Kellogg from the Post Office, and extracted checks that were enclosed in favor of the firm. One letter contained five checks of $159 each from the Aurora Bank, Aurora, Illinois; and he procured a boy to take the checks to Kendall, lanker, 70 Chambers street, and wrote the following note, signing it Kiggins & Kellogg.

THE THERST SWINDLESS -Yesterday quite a number of complaints were again made before the Mayor by parties who had been fleeced by ticket swindlers. A young man named Robert Smellic complained that he was induced to purchase a ticket for Chicago for $16, and that on his arrival at Chicago it cost him over $40—his tickets all proving to be worthless. Another man named Robert White was clone out of $5 on a ticket to Glasgow. The Mayor yesterday stationed an efficer again in front of each of these known establishments to notify strangers not to purchase tickets. Officer Moore, while standing in front of a place kept by a wed known ticket vender in Cedar street, had a pail of water thrown out upon him. He was accordingly arrested and held to answer.

Assest or Shortprines .- Yesterday afternoon detective named Jacob, Edward, Charles and Catharine Adrian whom they caught visiting several stores in the upper part of the city, which rather aroused the suspicions of the officers, and they were accordingly taken into custody. On their persons were found two large pockets filled with men's and women's boots and shoes, three fur victorines, several bottles of wines and cordinis, &c., valued in all at about one hundred dollars. They were all locked up to swait the identification of the goods.

DEATH PROM AN OVERDOON OF LAUDANUM.—Palmer Tier, B resident of Poughkeepsie, died yesterday at No. 186 West street, from the effects of an overdose of lauda-num, administered by himself, but whether with the in-tention of committing suicide or not could not be satisfactention of committing suicide or not could not be satisfactorily ascertained. Deceased was thrity-five years of age, and was by occupation a drever. On Thursday he applied for lodgings at the above mentioned place, and yesterday morning, on going to his room, the landlord found him dead in bed. On the window sill was found a half empty bottle of laudanum. The deceased had probably taken an ounce of the poison, which was sufficient to cause death in a brief period. Coroner Connery held an inquest upon the body, when the jury rendered a verdict of "Death from an overdose of laudanum."

A HINT TO THE CITY RAILROAD COMPANIES -As the winter eason has now fairly set in, it would be well for the pa trons of our various city railroads to press upon the atten tion of the several companies the necessity of immediately providing some accommodations at the general termini providing some accommodations at the general termini of all the railroads at the south end of the Park for night passengers, who are now often compelied to wait as long as twenty minutes for the arrival of the car that will take them to their homes. During the summer time this might be borne patiently, although even then a seat would be an accommodation to females, children, aged or invalid men; but now, when winter has come, with its frosts, storms, snowy streets and loy winds, it is disgraceful to the railroad companies that they have made no provision for their patrons, whom chance, business, or perhaps the sickness of friends, have compelled to use their cars at a late hour of night. Any one who has been compelled to wait at the corner of Vesey street, after midnight, for an Eighth avenue car (of which only three are un on the whole line after that time), will understand the suffering weak women and sick men are often compelled to undergo, with no shelter and not even a seat to rest upon, on these cold stormy nights. If the companies only made provision for having a car constantly at the terminus of each road it would be a great relief, and it is to be hoped they will see the propriety of doing so at once. As all the companies declare large dividends, ranging from eight to fifteen per cent annually, and as they are incalculably mean in the treatment of their employes, compelling them to work fifteen hours for a miserable pittance, they can well afford to spend a few hundred dollars for the convenience of their night patrons. In fact, if cleaner cars and better accummodations are not at once afforded the public, an agitation for a reduction of the fares to three cents should be made by all classes of our clitzens—a movement that would very soon become so popular that the Common Council would be compelied to heed it.

The alarm of fire for the Sixth district on Friday morning, about seven o'clock, originated at No. 44 avenue of the porter house kept by Andrew Smith. It appears that a piece of lighted paper or match fell through a knot hole in the floor and ignited some sawdust. The fire was extinguished before any damage of account was done.

FUBLIC MEETING OF THE ISRAELITES OF CHARLES-TON, S. C.

[From the Charleston Mercury, Dec. 1.]

A meeting of the Israelites of Charleston convened at the Masonic Hall, or Tuesday evening, November 30, in pursuance of a call through the public papers.

The meeting was organized by the appointment of Samuel Hart, Sr., Esq., President; Joshus Lazarus and Isaac S. Cohen, Esqrs., Vice Presidents; and Nathaniel Lovin, Esq., Secretary.

The Chairman briefly stated the object for which the meeting had been called together, and informed those assembled that having received certain decuments from Sir Moses Monteflore in relation to the abduction of the child Mortara, he had submitted the same to a preliminary conference of Israelites, at which a committee, consisting of J. N. Cardozo, Esq., Rev. Ir. M. Mayer and Rev. H. S. Jacobs, were appointed to prepare a preamble and resolutions for the consideration of the public meeting.

N. Levin, Esq., Secretary of the meeting, then read the following letter from Sir Moses Monteflore, of London, with the appended statement of the circumstances attending the case:—

following letter from Sir Moses Montefiore, of London, with the appended statement of the circumstances attending the case.—

GRONTENEN AS President of the London Committee of Deputies of the British Jews, I transmit, herewish, the transcript of the case of the abduction of a Jewish child from its parenta. Also, transcript of a private letter giving further details of this cruel outrage.

No deut this case, which has justly raised almost universal indignation, has come under your notice, and you will rejoice to co-operate with the Jews of England, Holband and France in the adoption of such measures as in your judgment may be expecient, by appeal to your government and otherwise, to seek to obtain the restoration of the child to its afflicted parents, and also the prevention of similar outrages for the future. You cannot tall to perceive that this is a matter affecting not the Jews alone, but also every other denomination of faith, except the Roman Catholic further, that it cannot be regarded exclusively under a religious aspect, but as placing in peril personal liberty, social relations and the peace of families.

The Board of Deputies, therefore, hesitate not to believe that this appeal to your active sympathies will meet with a cheerful and immediate response, so that, under the blessing of the Almighty, we may hope to have the happiness of obtaining rederas for the grievous wrong which has been committed, and or preventing the recurrence of stantas attentives.

The Nicaragua Filibusters.

JUDGE CAMA BELL'S CHARGE TO THE GRAND JURY OF MOBILE.

On the 26th uft. Judge John A. Campbell delivered his charge to the Grand Jury of the United States Circuit Court of the Mobile Audicial Circuit. It has been looked for with considerable a lettest, as promising to interpret the sentiments of the federal Judicatory towards the Nicaragua tilibusters, one of whas principal places of render-vous has been in Mobile, and against whem the President's proclamation hast October was directed.

After stating at some length the jurisdiction of the federal government in foreign relations, and quoting the President's proclamation against the Nicaragua filibusters, he proceeds to a full exposition of the metrics which led to the coactment of the neutrality actor 1818, the claims that the act has upon the loyalty of the citizens of the Union for obedience, the extent and operation of the act, and how its vocation may be detected by the inquisition of a grand jury or an examining magnetate.

After reviewing the various filibustering schemes in the history of the country, he mays:

The enterprise against Sonora, and two expeditions against Nicaragua, are the last that I shall bring to your notice; and I shall simply notice them to/close the list. Their lamentable history is well known to you. You will see that on the subject of these laws the course of the Executive Department has been uniform. No President has ever forgotten that solemn injunction of the constitution, "Take care that the laws be faithfully executed." The judical department of the government has never swerved from the doctrines it has inculcated, nor shrunk from the responsibilities of their high office. Through the long series enumerated, what good can be found, as derived either to the persons enlisted in the expeditions or to those who have directed and controlled them? What a frightful waste of life, reputation and treasure has there not been 1 in how many instances have they not discussed the precident's proclamation relates.

There are cases in the court, arising under the acts of Congress upon these titles, that may require your attention. The District Attorney will advise with you upon that subject.

I now close what I have to say upon the criminal laws of the United States. When I convened the special session of this court my purpose was simply to dispose of such business as might be ready for trial, and which I could properly despatch under the act of Congress allowing the court. The recent pestilence, I know, must have deranged the regular order of business in this city, and I did not wish to subject any party to surprise or inconvenience. The time for the regular session of the court was nigh, and there was no reason, should public business arise, why I should not return and employ the whole winter in this court. If I find that to be my duty, that course will certainly be adopted.

The mandate in the constitution to the President, to take care that the laws be faithfully executed, does not create a wail of separation between him and other officers and citizens. Every one of us who participates in the protection and blessing of the constitution is under the highest chiligation in his sphere of duty to take care to observe faithfully the laws made according to that constitution, and when the President appeals to me or to you to give him our hearty co-operation in the performance of the duties of his high office, we cannot, without forfeiting our claims to the respect and estimation that belong to a good citizen, refuse his appeal.

The insportance of a reliable article of this kind is inestimable. In warm weather all nature teems with these annoying foes. This powder is the only article ever discovered which will exterminate them. A company of botanists, from the Horticultural Society of Paris, while amid the forms of Asis, observed that all insects lighting upon a certain kind of plant very soon dropped dead. This fact was made use of to guard their night camps from these intruders. Quantities of the plant were brought home by Mr. R. Lyon, and found a pestitive insecs destroyer in every experiment. It is simply a powdered list, chemically prepared to resist the effect of age and climate.
